

U.S. Department of Justice

*United States Attorney
Northern District of New York*

---

December 21, 2010

NEWS RELEASE

United States Attorney Richard S. Hartunian announced the arrest today of a Frankfort, New York man on child exploitation charges.

A federal criminal complaint filed in United States District Court charges STANLEY DOROZYNSKI, age 53, with receiving and possessing child pornography. DOROZYNSKI is currently employed as a case worker with Oneida County Child Protective Services.

DOROZYNSKI made his initial appearance today in federal court before United States Magistrate Judge George H. Lowe, and has been remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal pending a detention hearing scheduled for December 23, 2010.

The charges filed against DOROZYNSKI are felonies. Upon conviction DOROZYNSKI faces a mandatory minimum sentence of 5 years in federal prison, a maximum term of imprisonment of 20 years, fines of up to $250,000, and mandatory supervised release of no less than 5 years and up to life following any term of incarceration. In addition, conviction of the charged offenses will require DOROZYNSKI to register as a sex offender.

DOROZYNSKI's arrest was the result of an investigation by the New York State Police, assisted by the United States Secret Service. The joint effort is a part of Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative designed to protect children from online exploitation and abuse. Led by the United States Attorneys Offices, Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state and local resources to better locate, apprehend, and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as to identify and rescue victims. For more information about Project Safe Childhood, please visit www.projectsafefchildhood.gov/.

The federal prosecution is being handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Lisa Fletcher, who can be reached at 448-0672.

The charges are merely accusations and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.